Senators Work On Draft Law

Agree to Restrict Calls for Doctors And Dentists Into The Armed Services

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Senators working on draft legislation agreed today to restrict calls for doctors and dentists into the armed services.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) told reporters after a closed-door meeting of the Senate Armed Services committee that problems of limiting the draft of medical men are delaying final action on the measure.

He said the members are agreed there must be restrictions.

"All medical men cannot be taken from one community and leave civilians without any protection," Gurney said.

The committee is working on a bill that would (1) authorize a temporary draft of men 19 through 25 years for two years service in the armed service, (2) provide a one-year training program for some 160,000 18-year-olds with the regular armed forces.

The House Armed Services committee turned out a straight two-year draft bill yesterday. Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) said the House should act soon.

Gurney said it will be necessary to have a special registration for doctors.

Senate Bill

The Senate bill calls for registration of men 18 through 25 but would allow drafting of doctors and dentists under age 46.

The Senate committee agreed also, Gurney said, to a revision of a ban against overseas service by the 18-year-olds called for one year training.

"The navy has to take them out on the ocean on ships to train them," he said, adding that the revision probably will let the navy, army and air forces train "teen agers in territories and possessions of the United States and adjacent islands and waters."

"I don't see any reason now why it will not pass," Martin told reporters. "The committee vote was pretty decisive."

The House Armed Services committee approved its bill yesterday by a 28-to-5 vote.

On House Calendar Soon

Martin said it will go on the House calendar as soon as the schedule can be arranged.

The committee's topheavily voted moved Congress and military leaders one step nearer a showdown on the present three-way tussle among the House, Senate and the administration over combining universal military training and the draft in a single bill.

The situation is at this stage right now:

1. The Senate Armed Services committee is waiting for Secretary of the Army Royall to recommend details of a bill to call 161,000 18-year-olds for a year's universal military training. They would be taken in addition to men of the 19-through-25 age group drafted for two years' service in the army, navy, or air force.

Chairman Andrews (R-NY) of the House committee has called this plan "utterly foolish, inconceivable and not called for." He says a draft and UMT could not be handled together, and UMT should be set up to start operating automatically after a temporary draft expires.

2. The House bill, sponsored by Andrews, would provide for a straight 19-through 25 draft.

Taft-Hartley Hearings Begin on May 24

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Congressional hearings on the question of tightening up the Taft-Hartley labor act today were ordered to begin May 24. Senator Ball (R-Minn.) in calling them, noted there are threatened nationwide railroad, coal and steel strikes.

Ball is chairman of the special "watchdog" committee set up by the 1947 law. This senate-house group will hold the hearings.

Railroad brotherhoods now are exempt from the act. Ball's mention of the threatened railroad strike suggested the committee will study the question of bringing them under the law.

Two Prisoners Take Notion to Run Away

JEFFERSON CITY, May 4—(AP)—Two prisoners at a state penitentiary farm got the same notion at different times last night.

Robert Bradshaw, 28, doing four years for a burglary and larceny conviction in Oregon county, slipped away sometime before 9:30 p. m., the state patrol reported.

Arnold Sparks, 37, serving five years for a robbery conviction in Mercer county, walked away sometime during the night. He was missed at the 1 o'clock check up today.

Neither has been captured yet, the state patrol reported.

Fire Damage to The Parkhurst Mfg. Company

Two City Firemen Volunteer Services, Help Put Out Blaze

Fire, caused from sparks from a welder's torch, caused damages estimated at $7,500 to the building, equipment, and living quarters of the Parkhurst Manufacturing Co., just west of Sedalia on Highway 50, at noon today.

William R. Parkhurst, owner of the company, received burns on his left arm between the hand and elbow.

Volunteers who stopped at the fire assisted Parkhurst and his employees to fight the blaze, along with Assistant Fire Chief William R. Middleton and Fireman Emmett "Potts" Vaught. They battled the blaze for more than an hour and a half before it was brought under control and extinguished.

Mr. Parkhurst stated one of his employees was using a welder's torch. A gasoline can sitting on top of a water bucket caught fire when a spark evidently jumped to it. A fire extinguisher was turned out the small fire and it only spread it over the rear of the building, setting fire to wood work. Before water could be obtained, it had burned its way up into the five-room apartment of the Parkhurst family.

Carried Out Belongings

Volunteers assisted in carrying out personal belongings of the family, while others tried fighting the fire with garden hose. One small house was used from the Parkhurst building, another was run from the Richardson grocery, and still another from Mansfield Implement Co., next door. The drain was too much for the three hoses, and not until the Sedalia Water Co., pumping station "boosted" the water pressure were the fire-fighters able to cope with the flames.

Middleton and Vaught, upon arrival, went through the building, then to the roof, where they began checking the flames reaching into the roof. Middleton went into the apartment of the building and directed the fighting of the fire there. The volunteers worked untiringly in getting out the Parkhurst belongings and fighting the fire.

Cannot Take Equipment to Country

Under a city ordinance the city is not permitted to send its fire equipment into the country, and the county has no provision for the fighting of fires, hence the local fire trucks could not go to

His Income Tax a Headache

PHILADELPHIA, May 4—(AP)—Filling out income tax forms for an itinerant day laborer was more than just a headache — it was practically a steady job.

Francis R. Smith, collector of internal revenue for the Philadelphia district, said yesterday that a man who listed his occupation as "freight unloader" turned in 104 W-2 short forms to complete his tax return for 1947.

Smith said the man, rather of

Elections in Five Missouri Cities Today

By The Associated Press

Voters went to the polls in five Missouri city elections today to ballot on bond proposals and other issues.

The elections were being held at Warrensburg, Chillicothe, Columbia, Hannibal and Lebanon. Bond issues were before the voters of Warrensburg, Chillicothe and Lebanon.

One bond issue at Warrensburg calls for $470,000 for improvement of storm and sanitary sewers and construction of a disposal plant. Another is for a bond issue of $211,000 to erect a grade school and a school for Negro pupils. Chillicothe will vote on a $293,000 bond issue and a $1 boost in the school tax levy for a four-year period for the construction of three new school buildings.

Municipal Bonds

Lebanon voters will decide on whether a $15,000 in bonds should be issued as the city's share of a $50,000 improvement at the municipal airport. The federal government will furnish $25,000 of the amount, and the state $10,000.

Columbia voters will decide whether a commission shall be named to write a charter for establishment of a modified city manager form of government.

Hannibal will select a councilman at large, and also indicate whether they favor parking meters and municipal collection of garbage. The vote on the councilman will be the first election since Hannibal adopted the city manager form of government.

Rush Auto Trip Failed To Save Babe's Life

KANSAS CITY, May 4—(AP)—A dash by auto from Clinton, Mo., in which an escorting highway patrol car had a collision after reaching here, failed yesterday to save the life of a baby girl who was ill.

The infant, born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. James Nold, Ulrich, Mo., died of pneumonia after reaching a hospital here. The car carrying the baby was not involved in the collision.

Birthrate on Decline

Name Nangle Democratic Committeeman

St. Louisan Chosen After Bitter Fight Over Selection

By Larry Hall

JEFFERSON CITY, May 4—(AP)—A bitter fight between J. V. Conran of New Madrid and Richard R. Nangle of Jefferson City left John J. Nangle of St. Louis as Missouri's Democratic national committeeman today.

The Democratic state convention elected him last night. Earlier, it picked a 42-member delegation to the national convention in Philadelphia July 12 and instructed it to cast its 34 votes for President Truman.

Truman won a cheering endorsement from the Democrats of his native state. Then they barged into an old fashioned scrap for committeeman.

From the beginning the main fight was between Conran and Nangle. Conran is head of a powerful southeastern Missouri organization in a section which has given Truman his best support outside of Jackson county.

Former State Chairman Nangle, a Jefferson City banker, formerly was state chairman and executive assistant to Robert E. Hannegan of St. Louis.

Hannegan put politics aside last winter to help run the St. Louis Cardinals baseball team.

The Conran-Nangle fight boiled down to a situation where neither would give an inch to let the other man win. Nangle was chosen by a special nominating committee which gave him 15 votes, Conran six and Nangle five.

Nangle supporters did their best to block it but Conran took the fight to the floor. As soon as he was nominated there, Nangle also came in. A lawyer, he formerly was treasurer of the Democratic state committee.

Made It Unanimous

And when the roll was called it became apparent Nangle was winning.

That was the signal for the Conran forces to go into action. His Tenth Congressional District bloc twitted to Nangle and others followed. At the windup the vote was Nangle 551, Nangle 434 and Conran 70.

Nangle moved to make it unanimous. He told the delegates they had elected the best of the three candidates.

Emploves Report They Were Beaten

Groves said his wife had received threatening telephone calls at their home. The Armour plant has resumed limited operations since a strike was called there.

As a Free Citizen He Proclaims Event

JEFFERSON CITY, May 4—(AP)—Private citizen Andy Anderson of Oklahoma City has proclaimed this week National "Be Kind to Taxpayers Week."

Anderson sent a copy of his proclamation to Missouri Gov. Phil M. Donnelly today. He said in an accompanying letter he had a right as a free citizen to proclaim the event.

Then he added the United States is one of the few countries where he could take such action without fear of a firing squad or concentration camp.

ST. LOUIS, May 4—(AP)—Henri Chouteau, a descendant of one of St. Louis' first families, today was awarded $50 for a 19-year-old tuxedo he said the dry cleaners never returned.

Chouteau introduced evidence in court that the suit was made in 1929 at a cost of $185. His wife testified it was valued at $210. The cleaning company which appealed a lower court's grant of $150, contended a suit more than 10 years old has no value.

Phone System Here Almost Double of 1939

More Than 7,000 Telephones in City; 700 in the Country

Sedalia's telephone system has almost doubled since 1939. T. M. Mullaly, manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, said today in commenting on the progress of the company's expansion program to keep pace with the growth of the Sedalia area as a producer of farm and industrial goods.

Progress in the company's program of providing more telephones for Sedalia is due to a record amount of expansion during the past year, the manager explained. "In 1939 we were serving slightly over 4,000 telephones in the Sedalia area. Now, more than 7,000 telephones within the city and 700 rural telephones in the area are being served."

Workmen last week started the installation of three new switchboard positions for the local exchange as a continuation of the postwar program of expanding and improving telephone service, Mullaly said. "Three positions were added in the spring of 1947 and with the completion of the present installations, the total number of local and long distance switchboard will total 51."

"The new switchboards will not only provide facilities for more telephones," the manager added, "but will make possible the handling of calls faster."

Mullaly also pointed out that the installations would add rural subscribers also since they, as a part of the Sedalia exchange, would enjoy the same benefits of improved service.

The manager emphasized that telephones within the city also continue to increase. "In the last two years, 140 telephones a month have been installed in Sedalia—more than 3,400 in all. At present, about 250 people apply for telephones every month," he said. "It's the greatest demand in our history."

Meat to Charity SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 4—(AP)—William J. O'Bryen, manager of the strikebound MFA packing plant here, said tons of processed meats were being distributed to charitable groups.

He explained "that the meats would not spoil, but might shrivel before they reached the market."

There must be about 500 peaches on the tree he said, where three years ago there were about thirty. They are a type of cling peaches, unusually large, he said. "This little branch was blown off," he said, "and this afternoon I'm going to get up into the tree and clean out any withered fruit."

Mr. McClure is a retired railroad engineer.

Harmony Efforts Collapse

Chairman Railway Mediation Board Going to Report Failure to Truman

CHICAGO, May 4—(AP)—Mediation efforts to avert the nationwide rail strike called for May 11 collapsed today.

"We are going to Washington to report our failure to President Truman," Frank Douglass, chairman of the National (Railway) Mediation Board, told reporters.

WASHINGTON, May 4—(AP)—Federal transportation experts said today President Truman still has wartime powers to seize the nation's railroads in event of a strike.

"Neither the railroad brotherhoods nor the carriers will budge from their position as it stood a week ago," he added. He referred to the collapse of attempts of the carriers and unions in joint meetings. They broke up a week ago tonight.

CHICAGO, May 4—(AP)—A mediation conference with the nation's railroads ended today with no prospect of heading off a strike May 11.

"The situation is no brighter than it was yesterday afternoon when I said it looks like there might be a strike," Frank Douglass, chairman of the National (Railway) Mediation Board, said after another meeting with management.

"There has been no change in the attitude of the carriers," he added. "They are willing to give no more than was recommended by the presidential fact-finding board that studied the wage dispute."

Recommended Wage Hike

That group recommended that the railroads hike wages of the three brotherhoods threatening to strike by 15½ cents an hour. The railroads agreed to this. The brotherhoods of engineers, firemen and engineers and switchmen rejected it as inadequate in the face of current living costs.

Douglass said he would meet this afternoon with the brotherhood representatives. He predicted the meeting would be short, lasting perhaps 30 minutes.

He and Francis A. O'Neill, Jr., a member of the mediation board, have been meeting separately with the labor and management groups since Thursday after the brotherhoods set May 11 for their strike. So far they have been unable to narrow down the issues in dispute enough to warrant calling a joint meeting of both sides.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Hay 4 — If Mrs. Roosevelt does what her friends say she's going to do about Harry Truman it's going to be one of the hardest political blows the president has ever taken — also a big personal disappointment. Only a few insiders know it, but President Truman has counted on Mrs. Roosevelt to help him swing his renomination. That was one thing he had in mind when he first appointed Mrs. R. to the United Nations.

Mrs. Roosevelt was first asked to be a delegate to UNESCO, the United Nations Educational and Cultural Subsidiary. This she turned down. Then Secretary of State Jimmie Byrnes suggested to Truman that she make a full U. S. delegate to the U. N.

Truman even took the trouble to call Mrs. Roosevelt himself so as to make sure she accepted the U. N. job.

Now, however, word from the Roosevelt circles is that Mrs. R. will not only oppose Harry for renomination, but may have a friendly talk with him, urging him not to run.

Oil Lobby

Hard working Senator Donnell of Missouri begins important hearings today on the most powerful lobby Washington has seen in a long time — Tidelands oil.

Donnell and Harry Truman, both from Missouri, one a Republican and the other a Democrat, don't agree on a lot of things. But they do agree that the vast reserve of oil under the ocean bottom — namely Tidelands oil — belongs to the federal government. If Donnell is able to uncover some of the big money that was put into Truman's campaign by the big oil boys who thought they were influencing future tidelands votes, then it should be noted to President Truman's credit that he remained

THE STORY: Patience Mond goes to London three times a week to attend dressmaking school. It is the only freedom allowed her by the two old-fashioned aunts who have brought her up and with whom she lives in the country. On the commuting train she meets Paul Taylor, who lives in a neighboring village and who finds himself attracted to the prim young girl. They date secretly, fall in love. The aunts find out, force Patience to promise not to see Paul again. Heartbroken, she keeps her word. Returning home one evening, she finds the aunts in a state of great excitement. They have a visitor. It is Charlotte, Patience's long-lost twin. Charlotte, who had been kidnapped by her father when he deserted their mother, is now a stage star, soon to open in a London show. She is appalled at the restricted life Patience has obviously led, determines to do something about it.

XI

IT was the following Tuesday. Patience paced the platform, wondering if the train would be much longer. Her heart leaped when at last it was signaled. This wasn't a day when she usually went to London. But she was going up especially to be with Charlotte. Charlotte had arranged it with Aunt Helen before she herself had gone back to London.

Patience jumped into the first carriage as the train stopped at the platform. She told herself that she wasn't going even to notice whether Paul stepped from one of the compartments when they eventually reached Liverpool Street Station. Instead she would think of Charlotte. Of the good time they were going to have together.

She saw her the moment the train came to a stop and flung herself out of the carriage. She raced towards her.

"Charlotte, it's so lovely to be here! I feel so terribly excited!" Charlotte smiled at her fondly. Gosh, she thought, fancy getting such a kick out of spending a few hours with one's sister in London!

"What shall we do first?" she asked, as they walked away from the barrier.

"I don't mind. Anything you like."

Charlotte hesitated. She wanted to dress Patience over. A round of the shops might be a good idea. On the other hand they could return to her hotel and have a round of her own wardrobe!

PATIENCE drew a gasping breath as some little while later she passed through the swinging doors into the luxurious foyer of the Mayfair.

"D'you mean to say you're staying here, Charlotte?"

"Why, yes."

"Isn't it terribly expensive?"

"It is fairly. But it's comfortable. And I'm making quite a lot of money." She strolled over to the reception desk to ask if there were any messages.

"Mr. Dickson telephoned, Miss Carlotta. He'll be picking you up here at twelve-thirty."

"Thank you."

"Carlotta?" asked Patience. "That's my stage name. It sounds more effective than Charlotte Mond."

"Sort of like Garbo?"

"Well, yes, I suppose so. Look, there's a lift waiting."

"Who's Mr. Dickson?" Patience inquired as together they walked down the long corridor to Charlotte's room.

"Roger Dickson. Darling, don't tell me you've never heard of him."

Patience shook her head. "I don't think so."

Charlotte gave a delighted little laugh. "That'll be good for him. You must tell him when you see him."

"Am I seeing him?"

"Yes. He's taking us out to lunch."

Patience felt a slight pang. She'd been hoping that Charlotte and she would have lunch alone.

pany, backed by the Guaranty Trust company and various big bankers, are the real people to watch both in regard to the Arab lobby and Tidelands oil. They go hand in hand.

Note — It's significant that the Wall street firm of James V. Forrestal, now the most potent man in the cabinet, once handled the finances of Arab-American oil interests. Forrestal is the man who persuaded Truman to kill the partition of Palestine, thus leaving the United Nations and the Near East with about the worst international mess since the war ended.

Taft's Ohio
One thing you have to remember about Senator Taft and the important Taft-Stassen primary today, is that Taft policies have not been too popular in the senator's home state. There is respect for the Taft courage and the Taft family, but no great love for Taft policies. For instance: While a Republican congress, led by Taft, was cutting the federal budget to ribbons, the state of Ohio, also led by Republicans, was doing just the opposite. In 1947-48, the overwhelmingly controlled Republican Ohio legislature and the Republican governor of Ohio increased the state budget 47 per cent over Ohio's 1945-46 expenditures under Democratic governor Frank Lausche.

Yet, in the senate, Taft has

"Is he a very special friend of yours, Charlotte?"

Charlotte hesitated.

"Not quite so special as he'd like to be."

His photograph was in a silver frame on the table beside her bed. Patience picked it up and looked at it. "To Carlotta, with all my love, Roger."

"He's awfully good-looking, isn't he?" she said.

"Oh yes, Roger's quite the answer to a maiden's prayer. And he has more charm than is good for any woman."

PATIENCE smiled and put the picture back again. No, she wasn't going to think of Paul. Of Paul who had more charm than was good for her certainly. And now Charlotte was opening the long built-in cupboards. Running a hand along the many dresses.

"Come and choose something you'd like."

"Charlotte, you don't mean that?"

"Of course I do."

Patience tried on first one and then another. She stood before the long mirror and wondered if she were dreaming.

"Charlotte, that's not me. It can't be."

She wished Paul could see her. She wished this more than anything in the world. The dizzy blonde would stand no chance beside her. She wouldn't have believed that clothes could make so much difference. Clothes, a new hair-style, and the right make-up. She was wearing now a gray dress with scarlet embroidery. She was wearing a little scarlet hat that sat crazily over one eye, and carrying a scarlet handbag.

She was looking now exactly like Charlotte, and yet there was a subtle difference.

Charlotte eyed her thoughtfully, wondering what it could be.

"Me and yet not me!" She laughed. "We without a past, I suppose. Well, darling, there's one thing I beg of you."

"What's that?" asked Patience.

"Don't take Roger away from me. You in those clothes with that unsophisticated air—I'm not sure I'm not taking a great risk in introducing the pair of you!"

been one of the most efficient leaders for a contrary policy.

Senator Thomas' Speculators

One of the most interesting figures among the unique assortment of characters who had the run of Oklahoma Senator Thomas' office at the height of his speculating days was Robert M. Harriss of the Harriss & Vose brokerage firm.

It was Bob Harriss who handled Father Coughlin's deals when he was speculating in silver and who also handled the cotton operations of Mrs. Elmer Thomas, the senator's wife.

Snuggling close to both Senator Thomas and Robert Harriss have been two state agricultural commissioners, A. E. MacDonald of Texas and Tom Linder of Georgia. Harriss has worked with both men on various cotton deals.

The way Senator Thomas' office has been used is somewhat like this:

When the senator from Oklahoma blasted proposals to control prices, naturally prices rose. When Thomas forecast good crops prices dropped. When the senator made a speech on the proposed policy of the department of agriculture, the market reacted. Advance knowledge of the senator's speeches naturally meant a wind-fall to men like Harriss. He could buy or sell cotton just before one of the senator's speeches.

Agricultural Commissioner MacDonald and Linder of Texas and Georgia were also important in this respect. They are artists at making angry protests against farm legislation. These protests sometimes influence the commodity market.

Bob Harriss has been so successful on the market that he has built up a beautiful estate on Long Island reputedly worth a million dollars. The estate is called Barcarol.

Visiting him on this estate last summer were none other than Texas commissioner MacDonald and his wife. They were on a vacation trip to Canada. Before they left, MacDonald's good friend, Broker Harriss, went into Southampton along with MacDonald, stopped at the establishment of Walter Rutynier, De Soto automobile dealer, and they bought a

14 Overtime Parkers Fined

Fourteen overtime parking violators who posted one-dollar bonds failed to appear in police court this morning and the bonds were ordered forfeited by Magistrate Harry O. Berry.

Among the fourteen were five or six for whom warrants were to be issued, but who appeared at police headquarters and posted the bonds, prior to the serving of the warrants. There are several others who still have time to appear at police headquarters before the warrants will be served.

"Notice Cards" have been mailed out to violators who ignored the overtime parking ticket placed on their windshields and before warrants are issued several days grace are granted.

Keep your youth, he told members of the council. Don't let it get dissipated. Live close to God.

Preceding Judge Hoffman's talk was a musical program by William Jackson, Miss Suzy Mae Allen and Miss Edrie Joy Gantt.

A short talk was given by Pryce Alexander, president of the adult board.

Fascinating Merchandise; at Times You Wonder What it is

The stores are so full of fascinating items you sometimes just wonder what in the world they are. Maybe if you can't stand it any longer you ask a clerk and you find out it isn't what you thought it was at all.

A Sedalia woman noticed recently on a cosmetic counter some little something that looked like lipstick only they were in pastel shades, blue, orchid, green, yellow and she had a ghastly idea of ultra fashionable members of her sex going places and doing things with lips to match their dresses—and their fingernails, maybe. It gave her a rather sickening feeling when she thought of meeting and having to look at women with green or yellow lips.

Not Lipstick
"Don't tell me," she said to the clerk, "that they are wearing lipsticks those colors now days."

The girl behind the counter laughed. "No," she said, "they aren't lipsticks, they are perfume sticks."

That was indeed a relief to the woman who doesn't keep up on the styles very well but who had sometime, somewhere known about perfume sticks. But it was the color that really fooled her and she was still a little bit doubtful after the girl said: "You just rub it across your wrist and the fragrance stays there."

Leaves No Color
"What about the color?" asked the woman. "Does it stay there, too?"

"No," said the girl, "it doesn't leave any color."

Well, anyway, it is quite an idea. All people need to get rich is an idea. Why the most of us work so hard every day for just a pay check that we eat up mostly, instead of sitting down thinking up some idea that would make us rich, is a mystery. It looks like most any of us could think up some of these things that have made other people millionaires. If everybody could think up one good idea then everybody would be rich and could buy each others products. Well, maybe that wouldn't work either, nobody would have to work so there wouldn't be anybody to make them. That sounded like a good idea, too, at first. It takes better ideas than that to get rich.

It May be Stan Musial's Greatest Year

In First 11 Games Has Built up .383 Batting Average

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sports Writer
This may be Stan Musial's greatest year since he came up to the major leagues with the St. Louis Cardinals near the end of the 1941 season.

In his first 11 games, the 27-year-old native of Donora, Pa., has built up a robust .383 batting average. But that is not the entire story.

Stan's 18 hits include four doubles, three triples and two home runs. All figures are high up among the leaders. He has driven in 14 runs, almost one-third of the Cardinals' total. Only Walker Cooper of the New York Giants and Hank Sauer of the Cincinnati Reds, with 15 each, have batted in more.

Quite a difference from his showing last year at a corresponding date, when he was hitting a puny .167 and had driven in only four runs.

The Pride of Donora singled in his first two times at bat yesterday, the second blow sending in Red Schoendienst with St. Louis' first run. The Cards added two more to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, in the only day game in the National league. The triumph shoved the Cards into third place, past Brooklyn and only a game and a half behind the pace-setting Pittsburgh Pirates.

Dave Koslo hurled a masterful four-hit 5-0 shutout for the Giants over the Reds before 28,424 fans in a night game in Cincinnati. It was his second win in two starts.

The Giants collected 13 hits off Johnny Vander Meer, Howard Fox and Ken Raffensberger.

The victory put the Giants in a virtual tie with the Pittsburgh Pirates for first place in the National league. The Pirates, however, hold a percentage point lead with eight victories and four defeats to a record of 9-5 for the Giants.

No other National league games were scheduled. Rain washed out the only scheduled American league game with Washington and Philadelphia.

Dr. O. V. Batson Discusses Mastoid Cases

Former Sedalian At Medical Meeting In Kansas City

Dr. O. V. Batson, son of Mrs. J. P. Batson, 422 East Fifth street, professor of anatomy at the University of Pennsylvania, took an active part in discussions at a meeting of doctors gathered in post-graduate courses at the University of Kansas Medical Center for ear, eye, nose and throat M. D.s, Monday.

An article which appeared in the Kansas City Star Monday night reads in part:

"Take surgery, for example, of that part of the temporal bone behind the ear which is full of air pockets—the mastoid—and is dangerous to tinker with because of the nerve and blood connections so close to the brain.

Surgery a Necessity
"It took a lot of detailed anatomical knowledge for the surgeon to go into an infected mastoid and break up its bone connections so as to make one pocket instead of many, for drainage of the infection. This was a common operation until sulfa drugs, penicillin and streptomycin came along.

"These infection fighters have cut the need for mastoid surgery down to 5 per cent of what it used to be twenty years ago, Dr. Oscar V. Batson, professor of anatomy at the University of Pennsylvania, was saying today.

"They've also dulled the need and spread of knowledge about mastoid anatomy," Dr. Batson, a native of Sedalia, Mo., remarked, "so that now at post-graduate courses we find the practitioners eager to pick up some ear, nose, and throat anatomy again."

"Every now and then we get a mastoid case which resists the new drugs. Maybe the drugs are toxic to the patient. Then we go back to surgery—and maybe find we need a stiff brush-up on some intricate anatomy."

Not Only Ornamental
"Speaking of external anatomy of the ear, Dr. Batson noted that the ear lobe has several uses other than for pinching or puncturing for an ear ring.

"A radio-tube instrument called the oximeter, attached to the ear lobe, now can measure the per cent of oxygen in a person's blood stream. This delicate instrument was used in the last war to test how high pilots could fly before reaching a "blackout" oxygen oxygen level in their blood.

"The ear lobe is served by alderman's nerve, a branch of the vagus nerve that serves the stomach. Alderman's nerve helps control the blood supply to the ear, and got its name, Dr. Batson supposed, from the fact flushed ear lobes often were noted in English aldermen generations ago—and aldermen were presumed to be well fed and flush with blood from the good eatables of life.

"Dr. Batson recalled another curious thing about ears and the last war. It was found that fungus infections of the ear were more common among those who served in the Pacific area than in those who fought in the Atlantic and Mediterranean theatres. Also, the fungus attacked soldiers' ears more often than sailors' ears.

Deep sea water pressures condense the volume of the water so much that if all sea water were to expand to its normal volume the ocean surface would be 90 to 100 feet higher than it is.

Recent discoveries indicate that the Gulf Stream is only about 15 miles wide and flows at a speed of about six miles an hour.

The effects of the Gulf Stream can be traced from the Gulf of Mexico to the ice-free harbor of Murmansk.

Security Loan Drive Report

The first sales report for the Security Loan campaign, which was released today, revealed that the citizens of Pettis county have purchased $56,929 worth of U. S.
Savings Bonds since the campaign began on April 15. These represents 12.4 per cent of the quota of $459,052 assigned to this county.

Mr. Robinson, chairman of the Pettis county U. S. Savings Bonds Committee, expressed confidence that this county would exceed the quota by June 30 and based his opinion on the interest being taken in the campaign by every citizen.

Mr. Robinson said, "The goal of our committee is to reach every individual in the county with a U. S. Savings Bonds message and with the patriotic assistance we are getting from banks, newspapers, radio stations, service, veterans' and women's organizations, and agricultural leaders, I know our goal as well as our sales quota in the Security Loan campaign will be reached and exceeded by June 30."

Mr. Robinson further stated,
"The slogan for the campaign is "Your Security is America's Security."

Emergency crews work in a vain attempt to extricate the body of Angelo Corsino, 33, water

Congress Has Its Hands Full With Important Things Ahead

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, May 3—(AP)—
Congress has its hands full to finish up before the important summer coming up.

The Republicans meet in Philadelphia June 21 to nominate a candidate for president. The Democrats pick their candidate
there in July.

The Democrats and Republicans in Congress want to finish before June 21 so that:

1. They can take part in the conventions.
2. Use the time between the conventions and the elections in November to campaign for their own re-election.

One-third of the 96 Senate seats and all 435 House seats will be at stake in the elections.

Part of Campaigns

And what Congress does this year will be part of the campaigns.

The two biggest things Congress has done since starting its 1948 work in January are the income tax cut and the Marshall plan aid for Europe.

But there's plenty of big stuff to be done before the conventions start. And probably not all will get done because some will mean long debates.

Here are some of the major items still unfinished:

1. Men for the armed forces—
Congress will have to decide whether to pass a draft law, or compel youths to take military training, or both.
2. Housing — The Senate has passed the Taft-Ellender-Wagner long-range housing bill. It's now up to the House to okay it and thus make it law, or kill it, or let it die.

Await Senate Action

Margarine—The House voted to wipe out all federal taxes on margarine. Nothing will be changed, though, unless the Senate votes as the House did.

- 4. The Reciprocal Trades Agreement Act—it dies June 12 unless Congress renews it. This act has been on the books 14 years.

It's a cornerstone of the country's foreign policy. The act means simply this:

To get better world trade, the government is allowed to cut tariffs on certain kinds of imports from a foreign country if that country agrees to cut its own tariffs on certain imports from us.

- 5. Displaced Persons — Should this country let perhaps 200,000 or more displaced persons in Europe come into this country?

The Senate may act on this by mid-May. Maybe. And maybe the House will act. It's up in the air.

- 6. Civil Rights — The idea of passing an anti-lynching law and a law to wipe out poll taxes has been kicking around Congress for months.

May Tackle Anti-Lynching

The Senate may tackle an antilynching bill this month. If so, the southern Democrats will try to talk it to death. If it ever passes the Senate, the House still has to consider it.

- 7. Tideland — The House last week passed a bill to give the states ownership of the land, rich in oil, off their coasts. The government says the government should control lands.

If the Senate tries to act on this, to make it law, the whole business may get drawn in debate.

- 8. Atomic Energy Commission
—The terms of office of the five members of the Atomic Energy Commission, including Chairman should be free to name his own commissioners.

C. W. McAninch, a Pettis coun-five carloads of cattle on the St. Louis market Monday and D.

W. Thompson, also of this county had twenty beef steers that sold at $4.75 a hundred pounds.

M. V. Carroll and F. L. Lude-mann left this morning for Carthage, Mo., to attend the state meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America.

Dr. Henry Evans, who for several months has been assisting the surgeons at the M. K. & T. hospital during the absence of Dr.
George E. McNeil, returned to his home at Beaman today. Dr. Mc-Neil has resumed his duties.

E. W. Shultz, through Attorney
Lee Montgomery, presented a petition having 1,000 signatures to the city council asking that a special election be called in Sedalia for June 11 to vote on local option. The resolution was adopted and the date designated fixed.

Rev. Fr. Kilkenny of Warrensburg arrived for a visit with the priests of Sacred Heart parish.

The old-fashioned method of storing fine white table linen by wrapping it in blue paper is still a good one. The blue paper will prevent the linen from turning yellow.

Wallace Irked By Hecklers

Retort As They Chant "He's Too Red For Me"

By Al Dopking
COLUMBIA, Mo., May 4—(P)—Henry A. Wallace exchanged verbal blasts Tuesday with hecklers who shouted and sang, "I Don't Want Him, You Can Have Him, He's Too Red For Me," during a speech by the thirty-party presidential candidate.

Columbia is the home of the University of Missouri, and college students made up part of the crowd estimated by police at 5,000. There were cries of "We want Wallace" and other interferences with speakers preceding Wallace. Unexplained microphone trouble developed, Wallace estimated the crowd was one of the largest of his campaign tour, and he said: "I propose to have you show me that the people still believe in the right to be heard." Immediately the loudspeakers went dead.

"I am calling on you people to exercise the right of free Americans to free assembly and the right to speak," Wallace said when the public address system was restored.

Anger Is Aroused
The third party candidate flushed with anger when still later the chant went up, "He's Too Red For Me."

"As soon as those hoodlums are through with their performance we shall continue," Wallace shouted. Pointing to the sector from where the disturbance was coming, Wallace told his listeners "there are people right there who preach violence."

He challenged his detractors a moment later when he said that civil rights in the U. S. are in danger. "If we do not practice democracy here regardless of race, we can not have any influence in the rest of the world," he said.

"Now let me hear you make a crack about that."

There was no response. Wallace was cheered when he first took the platform, and the heckling soon subsided to an occasional shout from the crowd.

Once, when he said that it had been suggested that he is a Communist and he declared "it happens that I am not," someone in the crowd cried:

"Well, then don't act like one."

In response to the shouted question of "how about Russia," Wallace said he would not enjoy free speech in Russia. He then turned on his hecklers and accused them of being "fellow travelers" because they interfered with his speech.

Suit Is Filed Asking Damages

A petition for damages in the sum of $2,000 was filed in circuit court, Monday by Earl C. Cochran and Marjorie M. Cochran against Alice Cahill, and C. R. Cahill.

The petition states that the plaintiffs were living on a farm near Mountain View, prior to December 15, 1947, and at said time the defendants were living and operating a camp and filling station a short distance north of Sedalia on highway 65.

The plaintiffs state in the petition, that defendants insisted that plaintiffs come to Sedalia and take over operation of the said premises, insisting that plaintiffs could make big money by doing so, and defendants exhibited to plaintiffs a written statement of what the contract would be if plaintiffs would come and take over their business.

The petition declares that plaintiffs acting upon this offer, rented out their farm and came to Sedalia.

The petition states that the defendants failed and refused to fully carry out their part of the contract and agreement.

The attorney for the plaintiffs is A. M. Harlan.

Move To Abolish Electoral College

WASHINGTON, May 4—(P)—A constitutional amendment to abolish the electoral college was approved 6 to 1 Tuesday by the senate judiciary committee.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass.), who submitted it, said he will ask the Senate Republican policy committee for early floor action.

An identical bill has been approved by the House judiciary group and is now before the rules committee.

Belle Baruch Loses In Suit

WICHITA, Kas., May 4—(P)—Belle Baruch—daughter of Bernard Baruch, advisor to Presidents was barred Monday from recovery for loss of her plane in a fatal crash here April 7, 1946.

U. S. District Judge Royce Savage of Tulsa ruled that contributory negligence by pilot and mechanic—both Miss Baruch's agents—bar her from the $63,427.38 damages she sought from Beech Aircraft Corp.

The Beech Corporation, Judge Savage held in an oral opinion, was negligent in permitting the pilot to take the plane off its runways while in an intoxicated condition.

But the mechanic, responsible to Miss Baruch, was seated at the pilot's side in the takeoff and the mechanic was not intoxicated, he said.

Evidence was that the plane had been accepted from Beech for delivery to Miss Baruch at Wilmington, Del., and was to be flown there by the pilot, Col. Herbert Horton, 41, of Fitchburg, Pa.

Horton and the mechanic, John Zozula, 29, of Washington, D. C., were killed and Clarence J. Myers of Brooklyn, N. Y., a passenger, was seriously injured but recovered.

Believed Fragment Is Of Meteorite

NORTON, Kas., May 4—(P)—A large meteorite fragment, believed part of the "ball of fire" seen over this area last Feb. 18, has been dug up on the McKinley ranch 10 miles north of here near the Nebraska line.

The fragment weighs between 100 and 125 pounds. It is one foot six inches long, one foot ten inches wide and nine inches deep.

The fragment, buried two feet in the ground, was discovered Saturday by Ralph De Webster, 14, who lives on the ranch.

AWFUL RHEUMATIC PAIN LEFT MAN'S BODY IN 8 HOURS

"For years I had rheumatic pains in the muscles of my shoulders, legs and ankles, which finally got so stiff, sore and painful that when I walked I would flinch with agony. TRU-AID is the new liquid formula, containing three valuable medical ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritis aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on all drug stores here in Sedalia.

A "star" in any car!

If you're "shooting" for smoother engine performance...for full protection and less added oil between drains...make a date, today, to OIL-PLATE...with Conoco Nth Motor Oil!

You see, Conoco Nth (Patented) contains a special, added ingredient that fastens extra lubricant so closely to metal that working parts are OIL-PLATED.

This extra OIL-PLATING stays up on cylinder walls, won't all drain down, even overnight! That means your engine is extra-safe from harmful combustion acids...extra-safe from "dry-friction" starts...extra-safe, too, from sludge and carbon caused by wear.

For "star" performance...full-time protection...more miles per quart...
